Description:

Description of project including duties performed:

After the Saturday service, everyone goes to the rooms of the Sabatina School, where several classes take place. For the English class, we high school students have prepared a different proposal: to teach in a simple way some basic contents of the language. For this, we created a lesson plan explaining what each one would do and we divided the responsibilities well. We also chose the activities that could work best for our group. On the day, we work on practical situations, such as greetings, how to offer help, give instructions, deal with more common health issues and ask for information. At the end of the class, we highlight how important it is to communicate clearly, act honestly and comply with what we say.
