Description:

Description of project including duties performed:

During my community service project, I taught an English class at the Saturday School. I prepared short lessons focused on vocabulary and simple conversation to help students feel more confident using the language. Before the class, I organized the materials, outlined the topics, and planned interactive activities to keep everyone engaged. The session went smoothly, and the students participated actively. As a result, they expanded their basic English skills and practiced speaking in a supportive environment. The activity strengthened the learning community and encouraged students to continue studying English.
