Description of project including duties performed:

Mais carinho

I participated in 3 social projects, one of which is the project done by the mission agency called "Mais Carinho." This project takes us to visit elderly people in a nearby nursing home, where we have time to talk and interact with them to make their day a little happier. The elderly person I visited the most was Mr. José, who was a bit shy, and other women who loved to make jokes about various topics, and we had a lot of fun.

Children's Day

Another project was to welcome children from a nearby public school here at IAPE and also go to them to give them a happy moment. When we went to them, we sang songs to welcome them and told a Bible story with a lesson at the end; and when they came to us, we also sang with them, they had some classes on different subjects, a tour of the school, and a snack at the end.

English School

The last project I participated in was teaching the English School lesson at the beginning of this year. We usually start by singing one or two songs to create a welcoming atmosphere, and then everyone briefly shares how their week was. After that, we discuss the material studied during the week, exchanging ideas and questions. Sometimes, we finish with a short quiz to review the main points. Finally, we conclude with a prayer, thanking God for guidance and asking for strength for the days to come in our daily lives today.
