Description:

Description of project including duties performed:

I and my classmates, the IAPE high school students, for three whole weeks, we studied the sabbath school lessons to teach teenagers English lessons after Saturday's church. Organizing it in topics, we separated what each of us would present about, help on the organization, make the games and gymkhana etc. This way, it got easier for everyone to understand and learn with us, and we could focus mostly on what we individually had to do. As a result, we attracted more people to the English Sabbath School, sharing the practical and fun learning of religion and language with everybody that participated of our classes.
