Description:

Description of project including duties performed:

During our community service project, we visited a local nursing home to provide companionship and support to the elderly residents. The activity was planned by organizing small groups of students, preparing conversation dynamics, and setting aside time to listen to each resident's stories. During the visit, we offered attention, dialogue, and assistance with small tasks, creating a welcoming environment. The impact was immediate: the residents showed joy, engagement, and gratitude for the students' presence. The action strengthened empathy, social responsibility, and intergenerational connection within the community.
