Description:

Description of project including duties performed:

The mission trip “Missão Bonito” took place during the week of April 17, 2025. In it, a group of selected teenagers embarked on a mission to help a small community of Seventh-day Adventists improve the quality of their worship services in order to reach more believers for the Kingdom of God. My experience there was unique. I helped with the programming, took care of the children, led special songs and activities, and organized the worship schedules, in addition to helping distribute materials to the city's residents. It was a week of mission work during which I realized that helping those in need is not only a request from God but also a duty for each one of us in society.
