Description:

Description of project including duties performed:

After the church service on Saturday, people are directed to the Sabbath School rooms, where there are a lot of classes. We, high school students, prepared a different lesson to teach basic English in the English class. For preparation, we created a script explaining what each person had to do, then we clearly divided the roles and chose the most appropriate and efficient activities for the group. On the day, we carried out practical activities on greetings, offering help, giving directions, dealing with simple health situations, and asking for basic information. At the end, we reinforced the importance of communicating clearly, acting sincerely, and truly keeping our promises.
