Description:

Description of project including duties performed:

This year, me and my classmates were for various voluntary activities. We visited the elderly support house and were also teaching and helping at the Sabbath school. We carry messages of hope to the elderly, we sing and keep company. All this with the IAPE Missions Agency. We studied an hour a day about the lessons of the English school project, which gave us a reinforcement for the day of the application of teaching in the class. I believe that both activities taught new things to several people and presented a little more about Jesus Christ and his teachings to them.
